Yom Kippur

September 15-16

Wednesday Evening – Thursday Night

Candles: 6:48 PM; Havdalah 7:46 PM

“...In the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall practice self-denial; and you shall do no manner of work...For on this day atonement shall be made for you to cleanse you of all your sins; you shall be cleansed before the LORD” – Leviticus 16:29-30

- Wednesday 9/15 at 3:30 PM: Join Rabbi Kirsch in-person in the auditorium for Yom Kippur Evening Service or Live on Channel 55
- Thursday 9/16 at 11:15 AM: Join Rabbi Kirsch in-person in the auditorium for Yom Kippur morning services including Yizkor – Memorial Service for loved ones who have passed

Due to Yom Kippur being a fast day, no refreshments will be served. The obligation to fast is superseded by the Jewish value of “vachai bahem” – You shall live by them (the commandments), such that in the event an individual has underlying medical conditions that would make it unsafe from a health perspective to fast, one may not fast and risk their health.

- Thursday 9/16 at 2:30 PM: Channel 55 Yom Kippur afternoon Service and reading of the Book of Jonah led by Etan Hindin, pre-recorded (not in person – DOI staff will assist with tuning to Channel 55)

Sukkot
